revenues in the framework of the final status negotiations of the Middle East peace process;

"6. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session on the implementation of the present resolution."

2. On 9 August 2000, the Secretary-General drew the attention of the Permanent Representative of Israel to the United Nations to resolutions 54/69 to 54/75 of 6 December 1999, with the request that the Permanent Representative of Israel inform him by 11 September 2000 of any steps his Government had taken or envisaged taking in implementation of the relevant provisions of the resolutions.

3. On 15 August 2000, the Secretary-General sent a note verbale to all other Member States, drawing their attention to the relevant provision of resolutions 54/69 to 54/75, including paragraph 4 of resolution 54/74, and requesting information by 11 September 2000 concerning any action taken or envisaged in relation to their implementation.

4. A reply dated 6 September 2000 was received from Israel, covering various aspects of resolutions 54/69 to 54/75. The text reads as follows:

"Israel's position on these resolutions has been set forth in successive annual replies submitted to the Secretary-General in recent years, the latest of which is Israel's note verbale of 23 August 1999. Israel regrets the fact that the resolutions regarding the United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA) remain rife with political issues irrelevant to the work for which UNRWA is responsible, and thus remain detached from the reality in the area. Accordingly, Israel abstained on resolution 54/72 and voted against resolutions 54/69, 54/71, 54/73, 54/74 and 54/75.

"The resolutions concerning UNRWA must reflect the progress in the peace process, and the potential for further breakthroughs in the future. If this potential is to be harnessed, the peace process must receive encouragement and support from concerned parties in the region and the international community, including through the resolutions regarding the functioning of UNRWA.

"Israel believes that UNRWA can play an important role in promoting the social and economic advancement foreseen in the agreements between Israel and the Palestinians, within the limits of its humanitarian mandate, and accordingly looks forward to continuing the cooperation and good working relationship with UNRWA.

"In the light of the above, Israel considers it essential that the General Assembly consolidate the resolutions regarding UNRWA into one resolution directly related to the Agency's humanitarian tasks. This would also be compatible with the necessity to rationalize the work of the General Assembly."

5. No replies have been received from other Member States with regard to paragraph 4 of resolution 54/74.
